Preface...

Crunchy English Reader, an Integrated Course in English is a series of carefully graded text books intended to guide the students. It is a series of 8 books for classes I to VIII. In this series students are guided to work out language related problems in a practical manner through activities and writing after imagining. The book in this series mainly focus on interactive language. This series is innovative resource which will give them a sense of achievement and extend their English reading in as natural way as possible.

Key Features of Course books of the Series

- ◆ Text helps in enhancement of students' aptitude for language. A pre-reading before each text is intended to make the learner conscious of the theme concerned.
- ◆ Warm up to check the students eye-sense from the picture.
- ◆ Test your knowledge section contains objective type questions that forces the students to read between the lines, interpret, analyse and arrive at conclusion.
- ◆ The section 'Vocabulary' as well as offering them opportunities for vocabulary expansion.
- ◆ Grammar under the section 'Grammar Skills' has been presented in a systematic manner using the contexts in the texts. Abstract explanations have been kept to a minimum. Interesting and meaningful grammar practice help the learners to have a better command over English.
- ◆ The section 'Writing Skills' is extremely important for learners. The tasks in this section are both interesting and challenging. These tasks provide learners guidance and prompts to produce a range of functional and imaginative written texts.
- ◆ The section 'Speaking Skills' offers highly interesting classroom material by encouraging learners to do oral tasks that highlight the use of English in dynamic and functional contexts.
- ◆ The section 'Listening Skills' helps children to add to their own ideas to increase social awareness and to become accustomed to correct usage and to listen for desired information.

We hope that Crunchy English Reader, an Integrated Course in English will encourage pupils to become more successful language learners by attempting extrapolatory questions and hence by becoming better thinkers. Not only this but a sense of self-worth will also be developed in learners. Besides this series will engage learners effectively as well as cognitively.

1 Be on Time

Pre-Reading

Are you able to manage your time or do you get late everytime? Do you know the importance of punctuality?

Yes, being on time is important. When we are able to manage our time, we can do many things in a day.

Warm Up

Look at the picture and write few lines explaining it.

---

Read and Enjoy

Let's read a story of a boy named Varun who was not punctual.

Varun is Rahul's classmate. They are friends. One day Varun was late for school.

Miss Rosy asked him, "Why are you late?"

Varun did not speak. The teacher asked again, "I want to know the reason, tell me why are you late?"

Varun replied in a low voice, "I could not find my colour box this morning. I looked in every corner of the house for a long time. In the end found it on my younger sister's bed. My younger sister played with it last night. She then left it on her bed."

After a few days, Varun was again late for

I

- Say any three ways that help us stay active and fit.

school. This time he narrated a very funny story. He said that he could not find his shoes in the morning. He searched for them for a long time.

"Where did you find them in the end?" asked the teacher.

"I found one shoe under the bed and the other on the top of the cupboard," he replied.

Be Moral

Punctuality is important for success. Why do you think being punctual helps us?

The teacher was shocked, "How did the shoe reach on the top of the cupboard?" "Last night"; started Varun, I went out for dinner with my parents .We came back home late. I kicked my shoes off too hard. One dropped under the bed and the other went flying on the top of the cupboard." The whole class became hilarious. Varun was ashamed of his explanation .

Miss Rosy was not happy with Varun's excuses. She said, "Varun, this is not a good habit. You must keep your things at proper place before you go to bed. Your bag, books, shoes and pencil box must all be ready before you sleep. In this way, you do not have to waste your time in locating them in the morning."

Let's Talk

- Why do you think good habits are important for us?
- Which good habits do you follow?

From the Real World

Suhaas is always late for school. He gets up late in the morning and sometimes skips bathing and even eating break fast. He runs to catch his school bus, but misses it as he gets late.

Do you think it is a good habit to get up late in the morning?

Varun was very embarrassed. He decided to do as his teacher had advised. Now, he is punctual in all his works. His teacher is very happy with him. Varun now tells everybody- "Punctuality is the road to success."

WORD-MEANING

narrated - to tell a story, shocked - to be surprised, punctual - to be on time, hilarious - to laugh loudly, explanation - to tell in detail

The Story of Ronald Rabbit

Pre-Reading

*Children can be sometimes very naughty.
Should you do mischievous acts despite of your parents' dislike?*

No, we should never do anything without our parents' permission.

Children who do not listen to their parents get punished for their mischiefs.

Warm Up

Circle the favourite vegetable of rabbits.

Let's read a story of a naughty rabbit who got into trouble for not listening to his mother.

Once upon a time there were four little rabbits, and their names were Garry, Parry, Fluffy and Ronald.

They lived with their mother in a sand bank underneath the root of a very big tree.

"Now my dears," said old Mrs Rabbit one morning, "You may go into the fields or down the lane, but don't go into Mr McDonald's garden : your father had an accident there; he was put in a pie by Mrs McDonald."

"Now run along , and don't get into mischief. I am going out ."

Then old Mrs Rabbit took a basket and her umbrella, to the baker's shop. Garry, Parry and Fluffy, who were good little bunnies,went down the lane to gather blackberries.

But Ronald,who was very naughty, ran straight away to Mr McDonald's garden and squeezed under the gate!

First he ate some lettuces then some French beans and radishes.

underneath - below

Feeling rather sick, when Ronald searched for parsley, he saw the gardener, who started chasing him around.

Be Moral

Why must we respect our elders?

Let's Talk

Why do you think it is not good to be mischievous?

Mr McDonald was run after Ronald. Ronald shoes among cabbages and the other shoe amongst the potatoes. He couldn't remember how to get out of the garden. Next Ronald lost his jacket and dashes into the toolshed. Mr McDonald heard him so Ronald quickly jumped out of a nearby window. Ronald caught his breath and tried to calm down and Mr McDonald went back to gardening. Ronald saw a mouse that was busy carrying peas for her family. Ronald asked her the way to get to the gate but she has such a large pea in her mouth that she couldn't speak. Feeling hopeless Ronald began to sob.

From the Real World

Rashi is a seven years old girl. She has a younger brother. He is very naughty and does not listen to his parents. One day when he was returning from school, he saw a teddy bear lying on the corner of the road. He went to pick up the teddy, Rashi stopped him from picking it up.

Do you think we should pick up anything lying on the road?

No, we should not pick up anything that does not belong to you. It can be dangerous.

WORD-MEANING

chasing - run after something, hopeless - having no hope, to sob - to cry

Ronald began to wander around the garden trying to find his way back to the gate when he saw a white cat sitting and looking over into a pond where a gold-fish was swimming. The cat sat quietly, watching the fish.

Ronald remembered what his cousin Betsy Bunny had said about cats and decided to walk away. Ronald heard the noise of a hoe and ran under some nearby bushes.

Once he realized, he was safe, he got onto a wheelbarrow and looked over to find

Mr McDonald working, most importantly right past him was the gate. Peter took a path behind bushes to get out but Mr McDonald spotted him. He continued to go under the gate and he finally got out of the garden. Ronald didn't stop running until he reached his house. When he did reach his house he walked in and just lay on the floor exhausted. His mother noticed that he had misplaced his clothes and shoes. His mother put him to bed, and made some chamomile tea. She gave a dose of it to Ronald!

That night, the three good little bunnies: Garry, Parry and Fluffy received a nice meal of bread, milk and blackberries, for supper.

Think Out of Box

- Which vegetables would you want to grow in your kitchen garden? Name any five.

WORD-MEANING

wander - to roam around, hoe - a gardening tool, misplaced - to get lost

Animals Farm

Pre-Reading

*There are many domestic animals on a farm.
Have you ever visited a farm? Lets explore how does a farm look like.*

*Domestic animals like cows, horses, dogs, hens, goats and sheep live on a farm with their young ones. We get milk, egg, wool, etc.
from animals in farm.*

Warm Up

Colour the picture of the farm and farm animals given below.

Read and Enjoy

Read the description of a visit to a farm by two friends.

Bina and Charu are sisters. Their uncle Yogesh has a farm. On Sunday, they had a plan to spend a day at the farm. It was a big farm. I t had many animals. The white cows and black buffaloes were grazing. Their calves were following them. Many goats and sheep were also there. Their kids and lambs were jumping. Uncle Yogesh milked a goat. Bina and Charu drank that milk. It was so tasty. Then they went to the stable. They saw horses and colts.

Be Moral

Do you think we should keep domestic animals in a farm? Why?

From the Real World

Riddhi loves animals and offers milk to stray dogs and green leafy vegetables to stray cows near her house everyday. These animals also love Riddhi and wait for her to give food everyday.

Do you think we should give food to stray animals, like other animals, stray dogs and cows also need food to live?

By giving food to stray animals we can help animals and learn to take care of other living beings as well. We can also keep water and food for birds during the summer season.

WORD-MEANING

grazing - when animals eat grass outdoor, kids - young goats, colts - young horses

On the other corner there was a kennel. Dogs and puppies were playing there. They saw ducks in the pond.

The ducks sang “quack-quack”. They walked a short distance to the hens and chicks. They all cackled, “cluck-cluck”. Charu and Bina sat under a shady tree. Their uncle went to check the barking dogs. Soon there were clouds in the sky. Their shapes were different. Some looked like an animal, a house or a tree. Suddenly it began to rain.

Soon it stopped raining. After some time they saw a rainbow in the sky. It had seven colours. Charu and Bina were happy. They returned home with uncle Yogesh.

Let's Talk

- Do you like pet animals?
- Which is your favourite pet animal and why?

Think Out of Box

- When do we see a rainbow?
- What colour of the clouds you see when it is about to rain?

Word-Meaning

kennel - a shelter for dogs

4 The Cunning Crow

Pre-Reading

Birds are important part of nature. There are different types of birds. They are beautiful creatures with feathers and beaks. Should we feed birds?

Yes, it is good to feed birds by giving them water and food.

Warm Up

Write the names of the different birds you see in the picture.

Read and Enjoy

Read the story of a pigeon that becomes friends with a cook and a greedy crow who got punished for her act.

Once upon a time, there was a fine pigeon who used to live on a nest close to a kitchen.

The cooks of the kitchen used to like her very much and often gave her grains. She liked the place and her life was fine.

One day a crow saw the pigeon and saw how she was getting wonderful food from the kitchen. Then slowly she became friends with the pigeon, and under the pretext of friendship, she somehow made the pigeon to share her nest with the crow. The pigeon then told her that they could spend time together discussing everything but when it came to food both had their own ways. So she suggested the crow to search for her own food.

But the crow was impatient and the very reason she had made friends with the pigeon was for the food. The crow wanted meat and all the pigeon got was grains from the kitchen.

One day, the crow and pigeon were having conversations while flying. But during all the conversation, the crow was thinking about the delicious food only.

Let's Talk

Which is your favourite bird?

WORD-MEANING

pretext - a false reason

She could not wait any longer and ultimately decided that she would visit the kitchen directly for the meat.

Be Moral

Do you think its okay to be greedy? Why?

From the Real World

Shruti, a seven years old girl, enjoy going to a park, where there is a big banyan tree and many birds. Birds live in their nests there and eat grains by people who visit the park. One day, the banyan tree is cut down to construct a swimming pond. The birds who lived on the tree also went away and there were no more birds there. Do you think we should cut trees and make birds and other animals homeless that live on trees?

Cutting trees is harmful for nature. Trees help in keeping the air fresh and are home to many animals like squirrels, ants, birds and insects. We should not cut trees and instead grow and protect more trees.

Thinking so, she stealthily crept down the chimney into the kitchen. She got the smell of a fish being curried on the pan. She got greedy and went ahead and tried to get fish. But in the process she disturbed a ladle, and made a noise. This alerted the cook who was in the neighbouring room and he caught the crow and killed it. So she got the punishment. Her greed brought her to the death.

Think Out of Box

Have you seen pity birds being kept in cages? Do you think we should keep them caged? Why?

WORD-MEANING

ultimately - finally, stealthily - carefully, crept - to move quietly

The Smart Kid

Pre-Reading

Parents take care of their children. But as kids, do you listen to your parents and take care of your house in the absence of your parents?

Yes, it is important to listen and respect our parents. Children who obey their parents are praised by everyone.

Warm Up

Identify and write the names of the domestic and wild animals in the picture.

Domestic Animals: _____

Wild Animals: _____

Read and Enjoy

Let's read a story of a smart kid who used his intelligence and saved his life.

There was a goat, living with her kid in a village.

They lived in a small hut. One day mother goat was going to the market to get provisions for her household.

"Take good care of the house, my son", as she said to the kid, he carefully latched the door. She also advised the kid from the window; "Do not let anyone in, unless he gives you this password, "Down with the wolf and all his race!"

On the other side, a wolf was lurking near the hut and heard the conversation between the goat and her kid. So, as soon as the mother goat was out of the sight of the wolf, he trotted to the door immediately and knocked.

The wolf softly said the password, "Down with the wolf and all his race." He heard this password when the mother goat had told the kid.

WORD-MEANING

provisions - food and other items, latched -to tightly close a door with a bolt

Be Moral

Why do you think it is important to listen and obey our parents?

The kid thought that it was the right password, but when the kid peeped through a crack in the door, he saw the shadowy figure outside, he did not feel easy at all.

Let's Talk

- Do you take care of your house in the absence of elders?
- How do you help your parents in taking care of your house daily?

The kid said, "Show me a white paw or I won't let you in".

From the Real World

Tanvi is seven years old. She was in her house with her grandmother. Her grandmother made a cup of tea for herself, but forgot to switch off the gas stove. Tanvi, who was standing right behind her grandmother reminded her to switch off the gas stove. Grandmother praised Tanvi for using her intelligence and saving her.

Do you think Tanvi did the right thing?

Yes, a burning gas stove can result in a big fire.

A white paw, of course is a feature that only a few wolves can show, so he was unable to fulfill the condition. He had to go away as hungry as he had come.

Think Out of Box

Have you ever helped someone or yourself with your intelligence. Share it in the class.

When the kid saw the wolf making off to the woods, he said, "You can never be too sure." So the kid used his intelligence and saved his life from the wolf. It is truly said 'Two surties are better than one.'

WORD-MEANING

paw - the foot of an animal

Visit to a Fair

Pre-Reading

Fairs are so fun. Do you also enjoy going to fair?

Yes, it is important to listen and respect our parents. Children who obey their parents are praised by every one.

Warm Up

Colour the fair scene and write the names of few things you see at a fair.

Read and Enjoy

Read the story of Anie who goes to fair with her parents and enjoy a lot.

Today is Sunday. Sunday is a holiday. Anie is very happy today. She is going to a fair. She wears a beautiful frock. She carries a water bottle in a small bag.

Her papa is driving the car. Their car is stopping in front of the fair gate. Anie jumps out of the car.

Her mummy and papa buy tickets. They all enter the fair.

Anie is going to a toy train. She gets on it with a jump. The train completes a round. Papa says, "Come down, Anie". "Anie says, please papa, one more round."

Let's Talk

Do you like to go out with your parents and friends. What do you see when you go to a fair?

Now she is on the swing. The swing goes up and down. Papa says, "Stop Anie, no more rounds."

Anie says, "Please papa, one more round" Now Papa and Mummy are with her on the dragon train. It starts with a zoom. Mummy cries out. Papa cries out too. Anie laughs.

Be Moral

Do you think it is okay to ask our parents to buy us too many things when we go to a market or a fair? Why?

WORD-MEANING

holiday - day off from work/school,
fair - an event for enjoyment,
to cry out - to shout loudly in fear

7 The Greedy Weaver

Pre-Reading

Do you wish to have more: toys, more ice cream and more playtime? Do you wish to have a genie who can fulfill your wishes?

We all want more. But be careful of what we wish for. Sometimes wishes do get fulfilled.

Warm Up

Tick the picture that shows the correct action.

Read and Enjoy

Read the story of a greedy weaver whose wishes costs him his life.

There was a weaver, living in a village. One day, while working on his loom; it broke down from in between. As he needed some wood to repair that, he went to the jungle to chop some wood. When he was about to chop some branches from a tree, he saw a genie appear before him. The genie said that the tree was his home and requested him not to cut that tree. The genie also promised a boon if the weaver dropped his plan of cutting the tree. The weaver was not confident about himself and hence said that he would like to take advice from his wife about the boon.

After that the weaver returned to his home and told his wife about the genie and the boon. The wife was even more witty and greedy. She said 'You should ask for one extra head and two extra hands. It will enable you to work at a faster pace and our income will become double.'

Let's Talk

- Discuss in your class about one wish you would ask for if you find a genie one day?

The weaver rushed back to the jungle and asked the genie to give him an extra head and two extra hands. The genie waved his hand and in no time, the weaver was adorned with two heads and four hands. The weaver was very happy and ran towards his village.

WORD-MEANING

boon - blessing, confident - to be sure,
adorned - to add something in order to make thing attractive

8 King Robert Bruce

Pre-Reading

Many times we fail in a task that we want to complete. We try to run but then fall down.

Do you get up and start running again?

Yes, failure should not stop you from trying again. We should always get up and start running and never lose hope.

Warm Up

Help the spider reach its web.

Read and Enjoy

Here is a story of a king who lost in a battle but never gave up and won the fight at last.

King Robert Bruce was the ruler of Scotland. Once the king of England attacked his kingdom and defeated him in the battle. King Bruce had to flee from the battle field in order to save his life. His kingdom fell into the hands of the king of England.

King Bruce took shelter in a cave in forest. There he gathered his forces and attacked the king of England again. But once again he was defeated.

He was very disheartend. He found a cave deep inside the forest and began to spend his days there.

One day, he was as gloomy as ever. Suddenly his eyes fell on a spider. The spider was trying to climb the wall and reach its web.

After climbing a little, it fell on to the ground. This happened a number of times. Yet, the spider did not give up.

Be Moral

Many times our friends are not able to complete a task like homework or a Math calculation alone. Do you help your friend complete their tasks?

WORD-MEANING

ruler - king, defeated - to lose in a fight, flee - run, disheartend - having lost hope or confidence, battle field - an open area where battles are fought

Let's Talk

- Why do you think we should not give up without trying many times?
- Do you try again to complete a task?

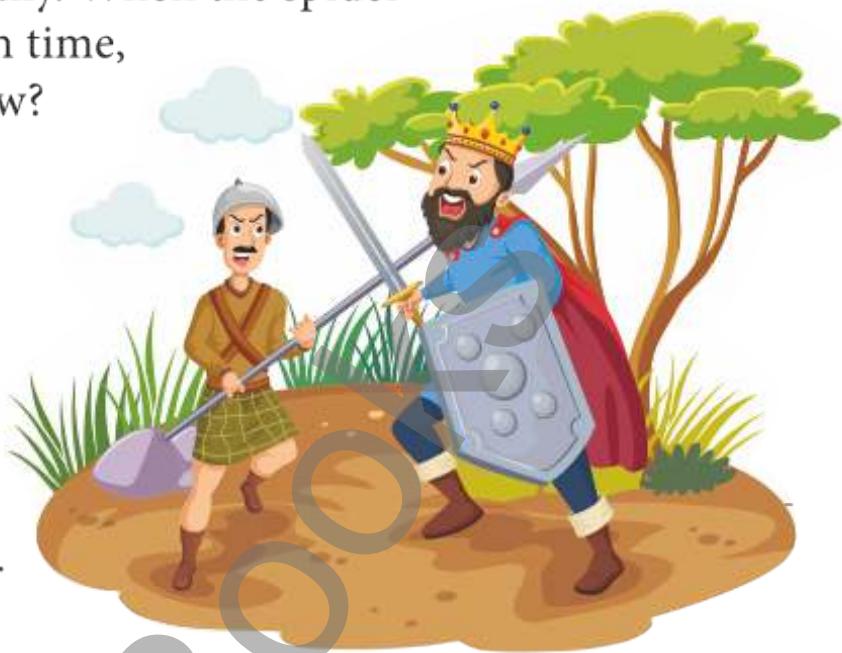

King Bruce was watching it carefully. When the spider fell to the ground for the sixteenth time, he wondered, "What will it do now?"

It has fallen down sixteen times. Surely, it will give up trying now. But to his surprise, the spider started to climb the wall again. And this time, it was able to reach its web.

Seeing this, king Bruce thought, "If a small insect like this spider did not lose heart, why should I ?"

From the Real World

Ishaan is a five years old boy. On his birthday, he got a bicycle as a present from his parents. Ishaan is afraid of falling down and does not want to learn to ride the bicycle. Do you think Ishaan should not learn to ride a bicycle for the fear of falling down? Ishaan should learn to ride a bicycle as you can only learn from your mistakes until you try to learn to ride a bicycle, you cannot ride it.

He started gathering his force once again and led another battle against the English.

Think Out of Box

Make a list of a few tasks, you are afraid to do for the fear of losing.

He and his army fought with great courage. Finally he won the battle and got his country back from the king of England.

WORD-MEANING

wondered - thought

Virat Kohli

Pre-Reading

Have you ever completed a task during a tough situation? Sometimes we face challenges we are not ready for.

Yes, we must use our intelligence to the best during tough times and remember our goal.
